

Amenia Free Library Resumes Story Hour Programming and will begin their “Play Space” programming with New Library Director

Amenia Free Library will resume their Story Hour program on Thursday, April 12th at 10 a.m., with their new Library Director, Erika Palombo. The “Story Hour” program welcomes children ages birth-5 years and their parents/caregivers. The program features stories, arts and crafts, music, snacks and more!

We meet year-round and have outdoor programs, when weather permitting.

“Play Space” program (Beginning on Tuesday, April 10th)

* Every Tuesday at 10 a.m. & Thursdays after Story Hour programming*

This program will feature open-ended playtime for young children and their parents/caregivers. Blocks, puzzles, duplos and other toys will be available for children to explore and enjoy.

Children must be supervised by their parent/caregiver for both programs

For more information, please visit our website at amenialibrary.org or email storyhours@gmail.com.